Add a delicate touch to Mom's day with remembrance gift

If the mothers in your life love fashion, head to Accessories and Fashions by Stephanie, 6777 West Maple Road in West Bloomfield. The boutique, inside Henry Ford Hospital, is up on all the trends, from clothing to handbags to jewelry hand-crafted by the owner, who works with Swarovski crystal, fresh water pearls, turquoise and more. She also takes special orders. Mention this article for 50% off a jewelry item when you purchase a full-priced jewelry item. Call 248-661-4322.

If you're shopping at Macy's — perfume, jewelry, a scarf maybe? — show off Mom's charitable side now through Mother's Day by visiting Macy's Facebook page and joining the store's "Thank-a-Mom Movement." No purchase required to send a free, personalized Facebook message and in return, Macy's will donate $3 in her honor up to a total of $400,000 to one of five "mom-approved" charities, including the American Heart Association's Go Red For Women, Futures Without Violence and

If the mom on your list loves gardening or just relaxing in her backyard, she might like the "Mom's Garden" baby birds plaque from Big Hug, a Bloomfield Hills-based remembrance gift company. The weather-proof plaque from the company's Garden Smiles collection is ideal for Mother's Day or a mother's remembrance gift. See more at www.bighugllc.com.
